THE FACULTY CLUB.

There is a movement on foot among the Faculty of the University to establish what is to be known as a (or the) University Club. Its prime mover and promoter could not be found even after a Texan reporter had traced down all the clues he could find. It seems to be sort of spontaneous out-break, as it were, among the members of the Faculty, and everyone is asking everyone else why the club has not been started heretofore.

A type-written invitation, meant to be delivered only to those meant to be "spiked," fell into the hands of The Texan reporter. It is something unique, quite humorous in its way, and is accredited nominally to one "Sunny Jim," who pretends to be "in care of the Registrar's office." It is almost an open secret that "Sunny Jim" is none other than one of the leading professors of the University.

An extract from the invitation, builded upon the plan of a school-boy's composition, but striking the key-note of what the club is to be like, runs as follows:

"University Club.

"A club is a place where you can waste time and otherwise enjoy yourself. It is a place where you can take a friend to meet your friends, and if there is a row in the family circle or 'house-cleaning' is in progress, a club is a good place to take some unfortunate that has just dropped in. A club is a good place to smoke a cigar with those you like; or, if you are unkind (bearish), you can go off and get—"

The reporter could get to copy no further. Any one so fortunate as to be invited will probably accept at once. From the "prospectus" of the club, it is easy to believe that "Sunny Jim," his accomplices and co-conspirators are endeavoring to "fill a long-felt want." Such a club can be made a source of a great deal of pleasure to its members. It will bring about a spirit of comradeship among the members of the Faculty that can hardly be said to exist merely because of the likeness of occupation and aims. The University Club may be counted upon from the start to be a complete and dazzling success.

THE AUSTIN LYCEUM.

Wesleyan Male Quartette.

On Wednesday evening, November 9, the Wesleyans and Miss Juanita Boynton appear at the Hancock Opera House under the auspices of the Austin Lyceum. "The distinguishable work of the quartette is characterized by its brilliant ensemble, its faithful interpretation, its perfect vocal blending." Indeed, many consider the Wesleyans to be the best male quartette now appearing on the Lyceum platform.

Miss Boynton is charming in appearance, and her work as a reader satisfies.

GREAT GAME IS OVER

CHICAGO 68, TEXAS 0

TEXAS WENT DOWN BEFORE THE FAST AND HEAVY TEAM OF CHICAGO---COSTLY FUMBLE BY TEXAS AT START---GAME FULL OF LONG RUNS.

Chicago, 68; Texas, 0! Such was the knell-like report that came over the wires last Saturday from Marshall Field where Varsity's team was struggling with Chicago's heavy eleven. But, looking at it from the standpoint of "what is likely to occur," Texas ought not to feel discouraged. Defeat is always a bitter medicine to swallow, especially upon a foreign field where sympathizers are few and gloating opponents are many. Defeat, however, comes to everyone some time in life, and just as a strong man, when buffeted by the waves of misfortune, becomes stronger and finally overcomes the adverse current, so will old Texas, made stronger by her recent defeat, rise up and invade the North again and continue the fight which was only begun last Saturday until the orange and white of Texas will supplant the maroon of Chicago.

Chicago drew first blood—a rather copious supply, too. Texas will play even. She admits that Chicago has the better team; that she was defeated fairly and squarely; but what she does not admit is that she is defeated for good.

The boys from the South were greatly handicapped. They were over six hundred miles from home; played a team outweighing them fifteen pounds to the man; and then, climatic conditions were against them. These three conditions were in themselves sufficient to give Chicago a great advantage; but there was one other which, to the writer's mind, overtopped them all—the style of game, directly attributable to the climatic conditions which exist in the North and the South. Chicago's attack was not only fierce, but fast. Plays were reeled off with great rapidity. This quick succession of plays can not be developed in a southern team on account of warm weather. To the existence of this one fact the large score must be attributed.

DETAILS OF THE GAME.

Crisp Bulletins Give the Plays From Moment to Moment.

Mogul Robinson was the leading figure in Texas' line, and made several gains. Hendrickson and Householder also get mention.

The game was illustrated to a packed audience at the University Auditorium, while the band played college airs.

The game by telegraph:

2 p. m.—Beautiful weather—little cold for Texas, but we hope to make it warm for them. A trap, gayly decorated with orange and white just crossed the field.

2:30 p. m.—Texas team arrives and marches across the field to the tune of "Dixie." They are given an ovation. The Chicago team follows them, the band playing national airs. Dr. Prather and Miss Prather are in the grandstand, and here and there can be seen the orange and white proudly waving.

Chicago gets the kick off. Tobin kicks to Masterson on five-yard line, who returns twenty yards. Chicago penalized for offside play. Robby gains three, Householder two yards. Robby gets the ball for a forty-yard run around left end. We are on their fifteen-yard line.

Texas fumbles and Eckersall of Chicago ran with the ball 100 yards for touchdown. Perry kicks goal. Score: Chicago, 6; Texas, 0.

PROPOSED FACULTY REGULATIONS.

Extra Exam. to Be Given to Students Absent More Than One-Sixth of Time From Any Subject in One Term.

The following are the proposed regulations. They have not been passed upon:

1. When, in any term, the number of absences of a student in any single subject shall exceed one-sixth of the total number of required exercises in that subject, the student shall be required to take an extra examination, besides the regular examination in that subject, on the day immediately following the regular term examination, unless set soon by the Dean.
2. An instructor may, after notifying his class, count single absences from especially important exercises as two absences.
3. If a student fails to take a required extra examination, his credits will be suspended till the end of the term next following, when he will have a second opportunity to take it. Failure to take a prescribed extra examination will suspend a student for three days, during which time his absences will be entered on his record. At the end of that time he will be expected to take the extra examination, in default of which he will be suspended for a week, his absences being again counted against him. The student who fails to take the re-examination at the third opportunity will thereby drop his name from the rolls.
4. Failure to make at least a D on extra examination will necessitate the standing of another with as little delay as possible.
5. A subject in which an extra examination is required may not be dropped until after the examination is passed.
6. The foregoing regulation shall apply to Academic and Engineering students and the Law students in their Academic courses, including Physical culture.

ATHENAEUM.

The Athenaeum was called to order Saturday night at 8 o'clock sharp by President Cope.

Officers for the ensuing term were elected as follows:

President—C. D. Wallace.
Vice President—E. G. Calloway.
Secretary—Robert Carswell.
Treasurer—Morris Rector.
Critic—Chas. Mays.
Program Committee—Joe, Worsham, R. F. Jones and S. H. Lattimore.
Texan Reporter—C. O. Smith.
Cactus Reporter—Alex Pope.

As the game stood 68 to 0 and there was "something doing on the Pike," the society adjourned.

RUSK.

The Rusk Literary Society met Saturday night with a house full of members, and the usual quota of young lady visitors. The debate was spirited and so closely balanced that it took the decision of the judges to convince the audience of which side had won.

The following program was carried out:

Declamation—Mr. Graham.
Oration—Carl Hartmann.
Debate: Affirmative—Frank, Rice, Pope. Negative—Cartsinger, Carter, Kirchville.

Subject for debate: "Resolved, That the People of Texas Should Have a Constitutional Convention for the Formation of a New State Constitution."

The judges decided by a vote of 2 to 1 in favor of the negative side.

The Rusk has struck a streak of luck in getting new members. In the two previous meetings something like thirty new members had been received. Saturday night twelve new members were taken in, raising the membership of the society to about seventy active members, all of whom attend.

After adjournment the contestants in the approaching preliminary debates met and drew lots for sides and places. Fourteen men have thus far entered for the contest. The Rusk has probably better material this year than at any time in the past five years. The new men are especially strong.

Meeting of Woman's Council.

Last Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock the Woman's Council met in the Auditorium. This was the first meeting of the year and was well attended, considering the inclemency of the weather. The program was very much enjoyed, especially Mrs. Kirby's talk. The Woman's Council is starting out with enthusiasm this year, and hopes to accomplish many needed reforms. The Executive Board is composed of strong girls who with Mrs. Kirby's aid may accomplish much.

After the program the following officers for 1904-5 were elected by signed ballot: President, Miss Lily Campbell; First Vice-president, Miss Eunice Aden; Second Vice-president, Miss Luella Gonda; Secretary, Miss May Jarvis; Treasurer, Miss Lel Waggener. Misses Casis and Rucker were elected faculty members of the Executive Board.

Saturday afternoon there was an exciting basket-ball game between the Freshmen and Sophomore teams. The result was 10 to 2 in favor of the Freshmen.

He spoke at the Christian Church upon both the past Sundays, has addressed three groups of law students, Grace Hall, the Woman's Building and other student gatherings.

The Big Telegram.

The following telegram was sent to the team in Chicago before the game: "Texas expects you to win. Don't get stage fright, but go in to win. The Illinois game shows you can. Private letter says their line is weak and their best backs in the hospital. You can win if you will. A thousand Texas hearts beat for you on every down. A thousand fellow students are watching every play by special wire in the Auditorium. Fight for Texas. We expect you to win. Do it."

It was signed by five hundred and forty-one students.

The students of Ohio State University celebrated their victory of Cace Tech. with a night shirt parade down the principal streets of Columbus.

"WHEN WORDS WERE SCARCE"—AND USELESS.

Say, did Prexy ever meet you on an errand bent, at night,

At a time when Prexy should have been in bed;

And he asked about your business in a manner impolite,

And you knew he doubted every word you said—

When you fell to inward swearing, at yourself, and Prexy, too;

For you felt that it was time to tell a lie;

And you tried to form an answer to his query that would do—

But your words got shy?

Did you ever go a-hunting, when a lad upon the farm—

Oh! you say you never lived in such a land?

Well, you needn't get excited, for I'm sure I meant no harm—

Only judged you by your looks, you understand.

Anyhow, I'll ask the Freshman: Did you ever in your life

See a paddle big enough to make you cry?

Did you ever try to argue while a strap was running rife—

But your words got shy?

Clothes to Fit the man, Rather Than the Man to Fit the Clothes--many custom tailors (perhaps yours) seem to put the blame for misfits on your kinks rather than their clumsiness. SMITH-WILCOX Smart Clothes are "custom-tailored to fit any size". That and the fact that they are considerable better than most of the custom-tailored clothes one sees on men these days, are the chief points of difference between them and ordinary clothes.

You had better try on a suit or an overcoat before you consult your tailor this Fall. It will mean money in your pocket and satisfaction in your mind.

The Chicago game is over; the Presidential election has been decided; and yet the sun arose this morning and the earth continues to revolve upon its axis.
Next Saturday we play a game with Oklahoma. It is going to be a hard one. Last year they tied up the first game and gave us a mighty hard game the second time. They have a strong, fast team and a Northern coach, who has put them on to all the points of the game, and it is going to be a hard battle next Saturday.
"The test of loyalty is redoubled support in the hour of defeat." We must beat Oklahoma. The players need your encouragement now more than ever. Show them that the whole student body is with them. It is up to you. They fought hard at Chicago and went down in honorable defeat, and it is the duty of every loyal student to uphold them in the battles that await them. Don't be afraid to yell. Sing out. It is going to be a hard game. Remember that it is your duty to help win.

THE HONOR SYSTEM.

First year men ordinarily are not cognizant with the principles and working of the Honor System, and for their information we submit these remarks upon this important subject. Briefly stated, the Honor system is this: In examinations and quizzes and all tests of knowledge in the departments of the University, the student is left with no one to watch him, and at the end of the paper he hands in is required to write a pledge and sign his name. "I have neither given nor received aid on this paper," is the usual form of the pledge, but some students, who feel more strongly upon the subject, wrote "Upon my word of honor as a gentleman, I have neither given nor received aid on this paper."

The fundamental principle of the whole thing is that when a student is left upon his honor he will not abuse the privilege that is given him. Nobody watches him. When he cheats he is not getting ahead of anything but his self-respect, for he leaves that behind him. Some students bring with them from the preparatory schools the mistaken idea that a fellow has a right to cheat if he is sly enough to do it without being caught. This idea dies upon coming in contact with the honor system. The students condemn any breach of good faith in this matter, and if a fellow realizes this, it should be of assistance to him in avoiding the temptations that come his way.

The Magazine.

By Sharon Bonner, B. A. '03.
I am glad to see the Magazine at last bound in a manner commensurate with what our Texas monthly should be. The material between the covers, taken as a collection, is the best, I candidly believe, that I have ever read in a single number.

The most serious and significant contribution in this number, to my mind, is the poem on the front page under the name of "The Call." But what a pity that this excellent poem should be marred with a fatal ambiguity! Is it a "presence" that he seeks, as the author writes in the third stanza, or the "star" which he is ever marching, climbing toward, which draws him on? A "presence" and "a star" are things as widely separate in meaning as in distance. It can not be both.

"The Pilgrimage Ball" is interesting because of the originality of treatment which the writer employs; "An Old Debt" because it is a story with a good plot, and well told; "Why I Am Not in the Legislature," because it is an entirely new type of literature to the "Magazine;" "George Elliot's Contribution to the English Novel," because it says something and says it plainly, clearly and well; and "A Portrait," because of the fine conception which it contains, although it is conveyed in language a little too subtle and obscure.

At the University of Nebraska, cross-country running is very popular and a regular team is training for competition with other colleges.

Chicago kicks over line. Texas gets free kick from twenty-yard line. Prendergast kicks to middle of field. Chicago gains five and ten yards and are now on the fifteen-yard line. They are scattering Texas' line by successive quick and fierce backbuckers. Perry makes second touchdown and goal is kicked. Chicago, 12; Texas, 0.

Chicago kicks over goal line and Texas gets another free kick. Chicago makes several big gains, Chicago fumbles and Texas gets the ball. Robby goes around right end for twenty yards. Texas holds for downs. Robby kicks. Chicago is making gains again. Chicago held for a loss on first down. Chicago gains twenty-five yards on second down. The heavy men are scattering the Texas line. Ball now on the ten-yard line. Chicago scores the third touchdown. Perry kicks third goal. Score: Chicago, 18; Texas, 0.

Chicago kicks to Robby, who returns fifteen yards. Texas gains six yards. Texas penalized ten yards on bad play of Masterson.

Chicago kicks to Woodhull, who replaced Blocker. By double passes, Texas gains fifteen yards. Texas makes some good plays, especially those of Robinson, and applause is generous. Texas punts to twenty-five yards line and tackles Chicago in their tracks.

Texas forced to kick ball on thirty-five-yard line. Chicago's first down. They are going through Texas' line again. Chicago's ball on fifteen-yard line. Chicago scores fourth touchdown. Perry kicks goal. Score: Chicago, 24; Texas, 0.

Chicago makes a twenty-five-yard gain on a run by Eckersall. Successive gains put Chicago on twenty-five-yard line, and Chicago is penalized for forward pass, but makes it up easily. Ball is on ten-yard line. Chicago scores fifth touchdown and goal is kicked. Score: Chicago, 30; Texas, 0.

Texas is outclassed, but would have put up a better game but for the loss of the ball when but fifteen feet from a goal. This play resulted in a touchdown on the long run by Eckersall, who recovered the ball.

Time is up for first half. Score: Chicago, 30; Texas, 0.

The Chicago team has Texas outweighed twelve or fifteen pounds and are very fierce ball players. The line up is quick and the shifts in the line come like shots from a cannon.

Second Half.

Texas kicks to twenty-yard line and Chicago punts to forty-yard line. Chicago is carrying the ball down the field. Eckersall loses five yards on back line fumble. Eckersall kicks goal from the forty-five-yard line. Score: Chicago, 34; Texas, 0.

Texas kicks to twenty-yard line and Chicago returns the ball forty yards. Chicago scores sixth touchdown and kicks goal. Score: Chicago, 40; Texas, 0.

Texas kicks off and Chicago begins its fierce march down the field. Seventh touchdown is scored and goal is missed. Score: Chicago, 45; Texas, 0.

Chicago kicks to Hendrickson, who returns fifteen yards. Texas punts and Chicago returns the ball twenty-five yards. Chicago is penalized for offside play, but makes another touchdown a moment later and a goal. Score: Chicago, 51; Texas, 0.

Texas kicks to twenty-yard line, and the ball is returned ten yards. Chicago fumbles and Texas has ball on forty-yard line. Texas punts to twenty-yard line. Chicago is taking the ball down the field and scores touchdown and goal. Score: Chicago, 57; Texas, 0.

Six minutes to play. Chicago kicks to five-yard line, where it remained by a bad bound. Texas punts and Chicago, securing the ball, carries it down the field for a touch-down, but failed to kick goal. Score: Chicago, 62; Texas, 0.

Three minutes to play. Texas kicks. Delroy makes a forty-yard run. Delroy makes fifteen yards more. Texas is played out. Chicago's ball on fifteen-yard line. Boone scores touchdown and kick goal. Score: Chicago, 68; Texas, 0.

One minute to play. Chicago kicks to Robinson, who returns the ball fifteen yards. Texas is working hard, but making little progress. Hendrickson makes a run of forty yards, but time is up. Score: Chicago, 68; Texas, 0.

The line up:

Officials:

Referees—Woolbridge, Lafayette.
Unipire—Lieutenant Hackett, West Point.

Linesman—Eskeridge, Fort Sheridan.
Time of Halves—Thirty minutes.

The New Biblical School.

The new Biblical School which is to be opened in Austin was established by the Christian Woman's Board of Missions. Mrs. M. M. Blanks of Lockhart, Texas, donated $10,000 to the School, and other persons, several of whom are citizens of Austin, have given about $3000. The Maxwell property on the southeast corner of University Avenue and Nineteenth Street has been purchased for the permanent site of the work.

The board in charge is receiving gifts from all parts of the State and great interest is being manifested in the establishment of the school. Among the students there is a reception of the idea much more favorable than was anticipated.

The following is a brief outline of the courses to be offered:

1. The Life of Christ. 2. The First Century Church. 3. The Teachings of Christ and the Apostles. 4. General Study of Old Testament History. Special lectures will be delivered upon the Miracles, Parables and Old Testament Prophecy. The work is planned so that each man will be able to take a course each year. Similar schools have been established at the Universities of Michigan, California, Kansas, Virginia, Oregon and Georgia.

SOCIETY.

Hallowe'en is always a favorable time for such parties as can occur only on that night, when witches walk and spirits are abroad. On Monday night the Pi Beta Phi Society took advantage of this occasion and had a party out at Grove House, the country home of Mr. Frank Hill. Those who were present were: Misses Kimball, March, Milspaw, Evans, Adion, McCormick, Harris, Longcope, Mitchell, Cowan, Cochran, Gould, Robinson, Martin Wooldridge Waggéner, Townes, Garrison, Helen Garrison, Maverick, Rose, Shelton, Hummell, Hood, Dunham, Lottie Harris, Otley; Mesdames Young, Caswell, George Hill, Frank Hill and Miss Dorothy Hill.

Mrs. Helen Kirby gave a most delightful reception to the Freshman Class on last Tuesday afternoon. The house was beautifully decorated and Mrs. Kirby sustained her reputation of being an unparalleled hostess. Dainty refreshments were served to a large crowd, and a most pleasant afternoon was spent by all.

The Freshman reception will take place at the Woman's Building on the 15th of this month, and this reception was to enable the Freshmen to be better acquainted with each other.

Mrs. M. C. Gregory gave a birthday dinner in honor of Dr. J. Morgan Calloway's birthday on Thursday at the home of her son, Mr. T. W. Gregory. Each guest presented Dr. Calloway with a gift, many of them being original verses, which caused much merriment during the evening. Mrs. Gregory was assisted in her duties as hostess by Mrs. T. W. Gregory and Miss Jane Gregory. Her guests were: Dr. and Mrs. Miller, Dr. and Mrs. Campbell, Dr. and Mrs. Harper, Dr. and Mrs. Bowen, Mr. and Mrs. Claybrook; Mesdames Hughes, Bradshaw, Brooks; Misses Prather, Ethel and Mary Hiliard, Otley, Reeves and Mary Johnson; Dr. Gray, Br. Battle, Dr. Fay, Dr. Griffith, Dr. Taylor and Dr. Hill.

ENGINEERING NOTES.

Ned Shands and Will Elam went to Marble Falls Friday to do some United States work.

Monday morning the Engineering Department held a reception in honor of Mr. Bantel. His hand was shaken until he felt like a Republican candidate, as he expressed it.

J. Ross Parrish, C. E. '05, has withdrawn from the University to accept a position in the "Maintenance of Way" Department of the Houston & Texas Central Railroad Company.

There are now 106 registered for Freshman drawing.

The machines are being rapidly installed in the Electrical Department.

ALUMNI.

C. T. Brues, B. S. '02, M. S. '03, was married to Miss Beirne Barrett, ex-'03, of Austin, June 16, 1904. Mr. Brues now has a position on the United States Entomological Bureau of Boll-Worm Investigation. Mr. and Mrs. Brues are now living in Washington, D. C.

H. E. Bell, B. A. '01, has returned from the Philippines. He has been teaching school for three years in the Islands.

Scott Key, LL. B. '02, was down last week from Waco, where he is practicing law.

Thomas G. Miliken, LL. B. '04, is now associated with Judge Bottroff of Denton, in the practice of his profession.

Hugh R. Robertson, LL. B. '04, is associated with Joseph Jones of Del Rio in law practice.

J. Arthur Platt, LL. B. '04, is junior member of the law firm of Stephenson, Stephenson & Platt of Overton, Texas.

F. D. Russell, ex-'04, was married last week to Miss Lola Littlepage of Austin. Mr. and Mrs. Russell will make their home in Austin. Mr. Russell is connected with the General Land Office. Texan extends congratulations to the happy couple.

Sam Neathery, B. A. '03, LL. B. '04, is associated with the firm of Garrett & Smith, McKinney, Texas.

Harry Bondies, LL. B. '01, former law librarian, winner of the Trezevant & Cochran insurance prize, is now associated with W. H. Clarke at Dallas.

Mont Highley, LL. B. '00, M. L. '01, is making quite a success of law at Oklahoma City as junior member of the firm of Highsmith & Highley.

Y. M. C. A.

The Y. M. C. A. met Sunday afternoon with Vice-president D. A. Frank presiding in the absence of President L. V. Parrish with the foot-ball team. Messrs. L. P. Zinnecker and Breihan had charge of the music.

The subject for the occasion was "The Student as a Citizen." It was discussed by C. U. Moore and D. A. Frank. W. C. Bryant and W. S. Pope also made short talks. Messrs. Zinnecker and Breihan will lead next Sunday.

The Mission Study and Bible Study classes are growing. Mr. W. D. Weatherford, Southern Secretary of the College Y. M. C. A.'s and Dr. Payne, Professor of Bible Study in the University of Kansas have been with the Association during the past two weeks, and have aroused enthusiasm in the work. New members are constantly joining both the Bible Study and Mission Study classes each week. This is a rare privilege for University Students, and costs nothing except for the books used. There are no fees for membership in the classes. A committee has been appointed to secure a list of all new students who register as church-members, and each young man is to be given a personal invitation to enter the Y. M. C. A., or at least to join a class of Bible or Mission Study.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. Carothers of the Woman's Building was called back to Arkadelphia, Arkansas, by a telegram informing her that her son was very low with typhoid fever. She has the sincerest sympathy of her many University friends.

The Statesman of November 6 reports that the engagement of Miss Lucy Hemphill of Louisville, Kentucky, to Dr. E. W. Fay of the University has been announced.

Why don't the athletic people start cross-country running?

The road down the Speedway to Mount Bonnell, and back to the campus would make an ideal course for a cross-country run.

~~The 1907-1908 year to da-da-da.~~

Professor W. S. Sutton attended the Teachers' Convention at New Orleans last week. Upon November 3 Professor Sutton delivered an address upon the subject of "What Can Be Done to Foster the Professional Education of Teachers."

The P. E. Cs. held their annual initiation several days ago. The goats who had the good fortune to become members of the mystic order were Mogul Robinson and K. C. Miller.

SORTER RESORTED.

The faculty of the University of Nebraska recently gave a circus, consisting of a football game, tug of war, slow bicycle race, broncho busting, and several other similar events. The show was a big success and netted $350 for the College Settlement fund.

When the University of Texas Faculty Club is organized and running and gets in debt, possibly we may see something of the kind here.

An Ideal Editorial Staff.

It has never yet been our good fortune to happen upon a college paper which was operated to the entire satisfaction of its quasi-supporters. Perhaps none such exists in this ante-millennial day. Perhaps none ever will. Believing with every vestige of our sincerity that the trouble invariably lies with the editorial boards and not with a Job-like public, we take decided pleasure in proposing a board of editors, which we venture to assert, would furnish a highly entertaining variety of dissertation: Editor in Chief, Benjamin Franklin; Associate Editor, Horace Greeley; Financial Manager, Baron Meyer de Rothschild; Assistant Manager, Jay Gould; News Editors, Mercury and William R. Hearst; Exchange, James Boswell; Athletics, Hercules and Caspar Whitney; Literary Editors, Marie Corelli and Brander Matthews; Alumni, Methuselah.—The Oberlin Review.

Massachusetts Tech. opened with 800 students, 500 of them being Freshmen.

Coach McCornack of Northwestern says he prefers farmer boys to city boys for football. He says the city boys know the game thoroughly and are good players, but the farmer boys are more powerful and have greater vitality. He thinks they are much more desirable for the line positions.

West Point recently defeated Yale for the first time in her history.

A rush, a scramble.

A tackle, a fall.

Six wounded, three senseless.

Four dead—that's football.

Dartmouth College recently conferred the honorary degree of LL. D. upon the Earl of Dartmouth.

The Minnesota-Ginnell score of 146 to 0 is the largest so far recorded in football history.

It has been suggested that a co-ed hospital corps be formed at Northwestern University to minister to the wants of disabled gridiron heroes.

Very strong efforts are being made in all the principal colleges, especially in the West, to strengthen college spirit. So far good results have come from the efforts in this direction.

President Stone of Purdue University has recently received a check for $15,000, the contribution of the "Big Four" railroad toward building the Purdue Wreck Memorial Gymnasium. The fund has now reached $35,000. When it amounts to $50,000 the University Board of Control will double it and work of building will begin.

A rather unique feature of the annual class rush at Butler University was the presence in the crowd of two women of the University who were so carried away by the enthusiasm that they jumped from places of safety into the middle of the fray. Several students were badly scratched and bruised, among them the doughty women.

The championship situation in the "Big Nine" of Western Colleges is so muddled that it looks like it is going to end in a newspaper row or else require a post-season game to settle it.

At a recent game at Northwestern there were 5000 Northwestern purple pennants in the grand stand.

The authorities of Brown University are undertaking to raise an endowment to support athletics so that no admission will be charged to games.

Just now it looks like the Eastern championship lies between Pennsylvania, Dartmouth and Amherst with the chances in favor of Pennsylvania.

In the Freshman-Sophomore rush at Purdue thirty students were injured, some of whom are in a precarious condition.

The designation frequently given to the band of rooters in the big Western Universities is "The Howling Hundreds."

Baylor's Band has the contract for furnishing music for the Annual Chrysanthemum Show of the Texas Floral Society to be held in Waco this week.

Most of the college papers are illustrating the football write-ups with cuts this year. It augurs prosperity for college journalism.

"Did you ever go to church?"
"Yes, I was christened once."

First Student—Down at Ringling's parade I saw twenty-four big horses hitched to one wagon.

Second Student—That's nothing; up on the campus I've seen fifty or sixty short horses hitched to the water-wagon.

Student—Wait till I round this off and I'll let you see it.

Student Assistant—A feller that is as good a rounder as you are oughtn't to have any trouble.

Law Professor to Blackstone Class—When does the owner of an estate have title to the wild animals upon his grounds?

Student—If a man has animals in his close they belong to him.

Suggestions With Regard to "Extra Exam." Regulation.

The valve of the Radiator opens itself and allows the following heat-waves to radiate:

1. That when a student is on any trip of more than four days' duration representing the University he be supplied in advance with a set of "Extra-Exam." questions.

2. When a student confined in a hospital shall have been absent from class five times it shall be the duty of the Registrar to send him a set of "Extra-Exam." questions.

3. That the time between the closing of the Summer School and the opening of the following session be devoted to conducting the "Extra-Exam."
School.

4. That an appropriation be asked of the next Legislature for the erection of an "Extra-Exam." Building, to be known as Cutters' Hall.

Jimmie Cutter, Class of 1912—How long have you been attending the University, Tommie?

Tommie Buster—I've attended six sessions.

Jimmie C.—How's that; you only entered in fall of 1901? How'd you make it six sessions?

Tom B.—I attended two regular sessions, two Summer Schools, and two "Extra-Exam." Schools.

Jim C.—Oh! I see. But what made you attend the two "Extra-Exam."
Schools?

Tom B.—W'y the first year I's here
I cut six times in Oratory and the next year seven times in English, and it took me two "Extra-Exam." Schools to make it up.

Reports of Chicago Game.

Almost a thousand enthusiasts gathered in the Auditorium last Saturday to hear the telegraphic reports of the Chicago game. When the first message was read, telling how Robbie had made forty yards and our team was near their goal line, the crowd went wild.
You couldn't hear the band playing for the yelling. But soon reports came in that struck horror to the hearts of all,
and it was a sorrowful crowd that filed out after listening to the terrible news.
